

Can't see this email? Click here to view this message in browser window.

"Look deep into nature, and then you will understand everything better."
– Albert Einstein

Join us at the Camano Island Library to discover something you didn't know about Deception Pass, or learn how the landscape of Eastern Washington was shaped by catastrophic natural forces.

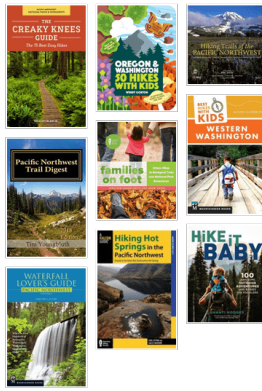

Exploring Deception Pass with Jack Hartt

Saturday, February 17
10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Camano Island Library

Megafloods of Lava and Water in Eastern Washington

Saturday, March 16
10:00 – 11:00 AM
Camano Island Library

Learn more

READING RECOMMENDATIONS

Pacific Northwest Family Hikes

Pack up your appreciation for Pacific Northwest landscapes and hit the trail! Check out a guide from this list of family-friendly hikes to find waterfalls, easy routes for kids, or hot springs for a relaxing soak.

To request a sign language interpreter, complete this online form or contact your local library at least two weeks prior to the library event. Interpreters will be provided based on availability.

SNO-ISLE LIBRARIES

Camano Island Library
848 N Sunrise Blvd
Camano Island, WA 98282
(360) 387-5150
sno-isle.org

Set Email Preferences | Manage Preferences or Unsubscribe

Powered by  Patron Point