

Can't see this email? Click here to view this message in browser window.

Whidbey Wonders

From terra firma to the wild blue yonder, join us at the Oak Harbor Library for informative talks about two Whidbey wonders.

Learn more

For adults.

The Story of The Pacific Northwest Naval Air Museum

Thursday, August 17

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM

The Pacific Northwest Naval Air Museum was established to honor WWII veterans and to preserve and exhibit artifacts. Step back in history and learn how a small island town was caught up in the turmoil of WWII.

Fun With Fungi: Introduction to Mushrooms on Whidbey Island

Thursday, August 31

4:00 PM – 5:30 PM

Join Eva Gordon of the North American Mycological Association for a fungi-tastic introduction to Whidbey's local mushroom superstars. Learn how to spot mushrooms on your next walk or hike.

Ready to learn more? Read about the engineering innovations, bold pilots, and big dreams that have propelled humans to take to the skies. Or, grab one of these handy guides and get started on your own search for PNW mushrooms.

To request an interpreter or other accommodations for a library event, please complete this online form or contact your local library. Providing at least one week notice will help to ensure availability.

SNO-ISLE LIBRARIES

Oak Harbor Library
1000 SE Regatta Dr
Oak Harbor, WA 98277
(360) 675-5115
sno-isle.org

Set Email Preferences | {unsubscribe_text}